S EED catalogues are out! And say:
 You never saw stuff grow
 the way
 It grows in catalogues! The seeds look like the finest kind of seeds!
 And turnips, too, look big and white

And fairly good enough to bite.
 And radishes are round and red—
 If anybody ever fed
 On things such as these pages show.
 They'd grow as giants used to grow.

Last year we peeled down to our shirt.
 And spaded and smoothed down
 the dirt.
 And planted seed from many a pack
 And got a large pain in our back and planted nearly everything.
 The pages blazon forth this spring:
 Lettuce and radishes and beets.
 And all the various kinds of seeds.
 Then roving chickens came, and then
 We dug and planted seeds again.

We cared for them with tender care.
 And smudgy face and tousled hair,
 And got down on our pudgy knees
 To weed the onion beds and peas.
 And plant sticks for the beans to climb;
 And we kept busy all the time.
 And worked about our garden plot
 Until it seemed exactly what
 A garden plot had ought to be.
 A garden 'twas a joy to see.

We raised three radishes: not what
 The pictured page had shown, and got
 A half a mess of dwarfish peas.
 Some beets, as woody as young trees.
 Our onions did not turn out well.
 They mostly ran to tops and smell.
 And we vowed never again in spring
 Would we fall for that garden thing!

But how this garden-longing toils
 A man! We've ordered garden tools.

Sodality Concert Monday Night

There will be a concert Monday evening in St. Mary's hall at 8 o'clock given under the auspices of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' sodalities of the Catholic church. There will be no charge for admission and those who come may donate or not just as they please. The public is invited.

The program which has been prepared is especially fine and decidedly well worth hearing.
 This is the second of a series of concerts which are being given under the auspices of the societies of the Catholic church. The first one was given by the Married Ladies' sodality and was excellent throughout.

Knights of Pythias Celebration

Thursday evening the Knights of Pythias throughout the United States celebrated their fiftieth anniversary.
 The order of ceremony had been prepared by the supreme officers of the lodge so that the same general program was followed at each celebration throughout the country.
 Here the event took place at the Elks' theater and was open to the public. There was a large audience present which showed its appreciation and interest by enthusiastic applause. The stage was attractively decorated with Pythian symbols and the emblematic colors of the order.
 Special officers for the occasion were Messrs. H. B. Cornall, chancellor commander; W. W. Bowers, vice chancellor; C. O. Cushman, prelate; Manuel Vigil, master of the exchequer, and C. L. Bernadson, master-at-arms. These, together with the speakers for the evening, were seated on the stage.

Col. George W. Prichard of Santa Fe was the chief orator for the evening. He was the first deputy supreme chancellor of the order in New Mexico and his interesting address was replete with reminiscences of the first days of Pythianism in this state.

Messrs. H. C. Miller, R. L. D. Mc-Allister and George S. Klock gave brief talks on the subjects, "Friendship," "Charity" and "Benevolence," the three fundamental principles of the Knights of Pythias.
 The musical numbers were delightful. Mrs. Ada Pierce Winn and Mr.
 Thomas Christian sang several splendid solos; an excellent men's quartet, composed of the following members:
 Mr. Charles Andrews, Mr. Hugo
 Meyer, Mr. Thomas Christian and Mr.
 George Everitt, rendered two numbers, and the Diamond orchestra played beautifully.

Knights of Columbus Dance

The Knights of Columbus gave a very informal but entirely enjoyable dance Tuesday evening after their meeting in Odd Fellows' hall. The crowd was not very large but the affair was quite gay and everyone present had a jolly evening.

Patriotic Program at Indian School

The Albuquerque Indian school will give a splendid program this evening at 7 o'clock in the school chapel in honor of Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays. The public is cordially invited. The program follows:
 Song, "Old Glory," chorus.
 Recitation, "Like Washington," Angus Palano.
 Recitation, "Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech," Henry Acosta.
 Song, "Soldier Game," kindergarten.

 tor Norris and Elsie Venito.
 Selection, "Army and Navy March," orchestra.
 Dialogue, "Telling About Washington," five fourth grade boys.
 Recitation, "Little George W. Washington," Pedro Arilla.
 Song, "Long Live America," chorus.
 Recitation, "Abe," Manuel Gonsales.

Recitation, "Johnny on George Washington," Peter Kiro.
 Flag Play and Song, primary.
 Recitation, "Cynthia's Cow," Alice Hardie.
 Song, "There Was a Boy Named
 Washington," five first grade boys.
 Recitation, "Snow Man," Grace Pacheco.
 Selection, "School Life March," orchestra.
